Click on the big blue box on the top right called

"Scholastic learn at home"

Scroll down the page (you do NOT need to fill out the sign up information) and click on one of the grade options

PreK-K, grade 1-2, grade 3-5, grade 6+

Right now there are five "days" of material, they say they will add new content each week until there are 20 days posted. A "day" is several books/activities on a certain theme.

There is story that plays like a video.

There is a non-fiction book about rabbits that you can read like a book or it can read it to you. Then there are about three little activity/game things that deal with word definitions, putting pieces of story in order, etc.
